

Patients are our priority.

Canna Farms™ is committed to providing patients with world-class products and unparalleled support. As the first licensed producer in British Columbia, we've stayed true to our medical roots and are focused on improving the quality of life of our patients.

Products cultivated and curated to meet your needs.

- 100+ products across 10+ brands. Each of our products has been selected with purpose. We've curated a wide range of medically-focused product formats and cannabinoid concentrations to meet patients' individualized needs and improve patient outcomes.
- Over 650,000 self-reported patient sessions logged. Through our partnership with the Strainprint™ app, every patient can track their product experiences and see what has worked best for others. Learn more here.

Craft practices that make all the difference.

- A focus on quality over quantity. We grow spring-fed, small batches indoors in soil and peat moss to mimic nature's conditions and provide consistent access to fresh plant-based medications year-round.
- A team that takes pride in their craft. Hand-manicuring and hand-selecting every bud we package to ensure you receive our highest quality dried flower.
- No more guessing. We provide transparency on the test results of every dried flower lot before you purchase so you'll always know the potency of the dried flower you're buying.

Award-winning patient care and support programs.

- A bilingual Patient Experience Team. We'll support you with your registration, cannabis education and product selection.
- Affordable medication. We offer a wide range of everyday value-priced products and Patient Support programs to make medical cannabis more accessible to patients in need.
- Proudly serving those who have served. Canna Farms™ offers specialized programs for Veterans, First Responders, and those on active duty. Learn more here.
- Free express shipping. Orders over $99.99 (before taxes and discounts) get shipped free.
- Faster insurance processing. We offer direct billing services and PINs to speed up the process.

"Your quality of life is our priority. We're here for you and here to stay."
